

Learn More About Hillsboro and Sherwood

Hillsboro

- Prosperous: median household income $82,300 ($62,800 U.S.)
- Young: median age is 34 years (39.3 U.S.)
- Ethnically diverse
- Leading edge industries with job growth that outpaces the region and U.S.
- High performing public schools
- Great parks, trails and open space

Sherwood

- Prosperous: median household income $107,500
- Young: median age is 36.4
- Manufacturing hub
- High performing public schools; athletic teams often atop conference rankings; perennial state champs

Both Hillsboro and Sherwood are . . .

- ✓ Rated among the top 3 best places to live in Oregon!
- ✓ More affordable than many West Coast communities

	Median Home Price	Cost of Living Index*
Hillsboro	$389,000	108.0
Sherwood	$426,400	133.2
Portland-Vancouver Area	$549,200	121.2
Seattle	$708,400	167.8
Los Angeles County	$754,400	161.7
San Francisco	$1,350,000	244.0
San Jose	$1,650,000	218.0

* U.S. national average is 100.0. The Index compares each community's costs for housing, utilities, taxes, food, transportation, healthcare and childcare. The lower the Index score, the more affordable the community.

Willamette Water Supply
Our Reliable Water Future

Welcome to Hillsboro!

Welcome to Sherwood!

